WRESTLING AND RAG TIME BIG HIT AT BOYS'

B. J.BRADSHAW 135 LB. CHAMPION

These Athletic Youngsters Are Wonders, and Have a Good Time While Training and Competing.

DLATING rag-time on the plane-and mind you-is nothing new to the boys of the Boys' Club. 'Billy' Gluck. who is the rag-time champion of the club, and who lives at No. 72 East Tenth street, is the real Paderewski of the east side. When the club has its regular wrestling and beafar bouts and other results. Poys' Club anyhow. They are wonders Once there was an inter-settlement wrestling championship in the Boys Club, which, by the way, is a real boys' club, with headquarters and rooms for romping and wrestling, boxing and the rest, in a fine big building at the worthwest corner of Teach street and Ave

Patronesses Were Shocked. Clad like Roman gladiators of oldthat is meaning the breech-cloth thing -the boys, ready for the fray, entered the well-appointed ring in the gymnasium. In the gallery overlooking the ring a number of patronesses of the club-good, benevolent and devote women who love boys for the real good that is in boys-took positions to witness the contests. When "Larry Dineen and "Moe" Jacobowski-ski is also a favorite and popular sport on the east side-entered the ring for their bare arm and pare leg contest, the bare arm and bare leg contest, the women looked and wondered. When "Larry' and "Moe" deliberately hauled off their trousers the good women covered thair faces with their names and fied from the galiery. That settled it. Wrestling bouts at the Boys Club became more bopular than ever.

There was another wrestling tournament last night, and if slapping a fellow in the face and on the back until he is as red as a lobster counts, and if gripping him by the calves of the legs and giving him a high toss in the air also counts, then wrestling is a great uning.

They—the boys—got together in all stages of undress, fust like the Roman gladiators whom the patronesses saw, and they mussed each other's hair wonfully. They got together, and very close at that, too in the blooking and very close at that, too in the bloomy daiss as under that of the gold fob prize winner.

gladiators whom the paironesses saw, and they mussed each other's hair workilly. They got together, and very close at that, too, in the 100-pound class, as "Pat' Kelly announced them, to the 155-pound class, and Supt. Tabor looked on smiling from the gailery. He applauded when one of his boys gave a boy from the Educational Alliance, or the Clark House, or the Union Settlement, or the Gordon House, or the West Side House, or any of the other houses or settlements that had the temerity to send a candidate against the host, a slam to the floor, a toss in the air or and the members of the Boys' Club, for their own more than held their own, the schedule for Monday Right:

corner Frankie complained of having a neadache and it was then agreed that after the thirteenth round had started which should call a halt.

Jim Nell made the usual holler for a grand stand play, but later quieted down. After the fight Jim said that Frankie had been sick and exhibited a doctor's certificate to that effect.

Frankie has evidently gone back so far that he will never be able to fight again, for his showing with Attell was that of the merest tyro.
